

I. RESULTS

A. UWA

1. 6/26/91 at el Palenque de la Feria at Celaya, Guanajuato, Mexico

1. The Main Event: UWA World Lightweight Wrestling Championship Match: Champion Lasser defeated challenger ? to retain the title (I will have challenger's name tomorrow).

2. 6/30/91 at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos in Naucalpan, Mexico, Mexico

1. The Main Event: UWA World Middleweight Wrestling Championship Match: Champion el Negro Casas and challenger el Hijo del Santo drew in the third fall with a double pin off of a double rolling reverse cradle. Casas was 82 kg (181 lbs) & Santo 78 (172 pounds). Excellent match. Casas won the first fall with an "enredada" and Santo won the second with his dad's old camel clutch finisher, the "de a caballa."
2. The Semifinal: UWA World Light Heavyweight Championship Match: Champion el Villano III defeated challenger el Huracan Castillo junior two falls to one with a clean pinfall in the third fall. Good match. Both men weighed 94 kg or 207 pounds. The limit is 98 kg.
3. The Especial: Dos Caras, el Gran Hamada, and Enrique Vera defeated Miguelito Perez junior, el Gigante Guerro, and el Signo two falls to one when el Signo fouled Vera in the third fall. Very good match.
4. The Tercera: The Killer, el Engendro, and Fishman upset el Texano, Silver King, and Kato Kung Lee II two falls to zero, but el Engendro had to be hospitalized legit after the match. Maybe he gave out after working five straight falls...Good match.
5. The Segunda: Katana, el Marlin, and Valente Fernandez defeated el Engendro (Raul Larios), el Indomito (Vincente Carbajal), and el Babe Face (Ben Heref) two falls to one. Good match. All the heat and spots were designed to get the newcomer Katana over. I guess they decided Katana sounded better than Takana.
6. The Inicial: el Angel Negro, el Angel Mortal, and el Migra defeated the nearly legendary Bat Blue, el Gran Apache I, and Mando Amezcua two falls to one.

B. EMLL

1. ? at la Arena Coliseo de Guadalajara, Guadalajara, Mexico

1. The Main Event: Mexican National Lightweight Wrestling

Championship Match: Former champion Flash defeated el Guerrero Samurai II (the same guy who's been on Galavision recently) to win the belt. I don't know the date or if it was a tournament or not, but this settles this division which had not had a champion since el Guerrero Samurai I was killed in an automobile accident last November 24, 1990. Guerrero Samurais I and II were (are?) brothers.

III. NEWS AND NOTES

1. Well, here it comes, the news we have all been waaaiting for. On Wednesday, July 3, 1991, the EMLL announced the signing of The Blue Panther (who is already in and working EMLL cards already) and los Brazos (not necessarily including Super Brazo) to EXCLUSIVE contracts. The article said los Brazos are booked on some UWA shows up through 9/1/91, but will essentially accept no new UWA bookings and only EMLL, and are sure to be heavily pushed by EMLL. This is a team that I would already call favorites to win the CMLL Trios tournament later this year and I expect el Brazo de oro to be entered in the CMLL Light Heavyweight Tournament (p. s. in 1987-1988 el Brazo de Oro was the UWA World Junior Heavyweight Champion.) Also, this team might be a favorite for the CMLL Parajeas tournament and if Konnan goes to Titan, el Brazo de Plata would make a logical CMLL Heavyweigfht Champion. Now, no word on Casas or Asai. Asai has completely disappeared from UWA bookings so I am sure he willl go but you can see that the EMLL is skimming the cream of the workers and may soon regain the status of #1 promotion in Mexico from UWA. Therefore, I expect UWA to make a big push to keep Casas and maybe try to get Aguayo, Mascaras, Santo, Anibal, Super Astro and others who now work both sides of the fence to sign exclusive UWA contracts.

2. The new national "queen" of Lucha libre has been chosen (and no, not by Pat Patterson either). Her name is Erika Ivonne Trejo. Secnd was Magda Gonzalez.
3. On Sunday, June 15, 1991, per Super Luchas magazine, over 300 wrestlers wrestled in the Mexico City area on that one day alone!
4. Dos Caras has formally challenged Canek to a title match for the UWA World Heavyweight Championship, so that match should hit el Toreo one Sunday in July. In the challenge, Dos Caras mentioned that he has been trying to get his hands on the belt ever since he lost it to Canek in el Toreo in December 1986.
5. los Nuevos Arqueros del Espacio: Lasser, la Flecha, and Robin Hood are on a tour of the northern part of Mexico which will end 7/16/91. Even though they work for the UWA, they have issued a challenge for the Mexican National Trios Titles held by Atlantis, Octagon, and la Mascara Sagrada.
6. Super Luchas Magazine reports in NO UNCERTAIN TERMS that Konnan el Barbaro and last year's Lucha libre queen Vicky Palacios are engaged (issue #14, dated 6/13/91, p. 4 and 5) and I have sent you a copy of that issue, Dave. Does his wife know about this? Maybe you should not print it.
7. Oh, it also reports Konnan's full name is Carlos Santaigo Espada Moises.
8. The tour of the southeast of Mexico (big news AGAIN) has been extended by two days, so they will wrestle down there 7/5/91 and 7/6/91. This means that these wrestlers will not be on Galavision this week: Konnan el Barbaro, Octagon, Fuerza Guerrera, Cien Caras, Emilio Charles junior, el Rayo de Jalisco junior, and 2 ladies and 4 midgets. I will have the card tomorrow.
9. The EMLL has announced a card 7/13/91 at a discotheque called "Metropoli" in Netzahualcoyotl, Distrito Federal, Mexico. Wrestlers signed to appear include Octagon, Konnan el Barbaro, la Mascara Sagrada, el Satanico, el Rayo de Jalisco junior, Cien Caras, Mascara Ano Dos Mil, Universo Dos Mil, midgets, and others to be named later.
10. I do not know if this will air on the television show, but the EMLL came out with a press release announcing its "wreslers of the week" for the period of Wednesday, June 26, 1991 to Tuesday, July 2, 1991. They were The Blue Panther, los Hermanos Guerrero (Chavo, Armando, and Eduardo), Javier "el Monarca" Cruz, Apolo Dantes, and Juan "el Huracan" Sevilla.
